A Special Sea Otter Enrichment — Cold, Clammy and Made with Love

Our aquarists are always on the lookout for creative ways to enrich the lives of the animals in their care. So, what happens when a sea otter aquarist discovers a new type of ice tray?

Sea otters are full of curious energy, and their dexterous paws and sharp teeth can make quick work out of even the most complicated and creative toys we can conjure.

Read how Courtney Ribeiro-French was inspired to create an extra-special enrichment activity for her charming charges in this issue of Shorelines online.
